Human Trafficking

Kathleen Bryant, RSC

This day will offer time for prayerful reflection & education on an invisible issue eating away at our humanity. Pope Francis said, "One of the most troubling of open wounds in the world today is the trade in human beings, a modern form of slavery". He has called on each of us to help eradicate human trafficking by 2020. How do you recognize this wound in your neighborhood? We will recognize how we each contribute to this global reality. We can be healers, simple activists and grow in our spiritual and social consciousness. It takes courage to see and not turn away from the suffering Christ in our world today. We will also look at the resilience emerging in survivors and what we can learn from them about the Paschal

Mystery. Sr. Kathleen is a Religious Sister of Charity and a board member of US Catholic Sisters Against Human Trafficking. Kathleen serves in the field of spirituality having earned a Masters in Spirituality & a Doctor of Ministry degree.
