9:00am to 3:00pm

Ignatian Spirituality for Prayer and Decision-Making

Randy Roche, SJ,
Director of Ignatian Spirituality at Loyola Marymount

The sessions during this retreat include three parts. Fr. Randy will offer comments that relate a Gospel passage with Ignatian Spirituality that is followed by a time for personal silent prayer and is concluded with a period of optional sharing by participants of reflections upon their experiences of prayer. Appropriate handouts will be provided. Randy Roche, SJ, is Director of the Center for Ignatian Spirituality at LMU. Throughout his years of ministry, Fr. Randy has deepened his experience of Ignatian spirituality as a way of praying and of discernment for decision-making.

Cost: $50 ($45 if paid in full by February 23) Lunch Included
