For the Good of the Family Legacy

Dennis J. Branconier, MA

An Time to Re-Imagine Your Legacy ~ What are your hopes for your family after your own lifetime? Does your inheritance to loved ones speak of faith, hope and love? What do your children value? In what ways will you most effectively communicate your legacy intentions to them? Participants will gain a spiritual perspective leading to practical action while being guided to address these questions privately. There is no technical, legal or financial material involved. Dennis has drawn from 30 years' experience in financial and estate planning to address family legacy issues that typically go untouched by technical professional advisors.
