Threads of Our Lives: A Quilted Journey

Wednesday, May 9 ~ Wednesday May 16, 2018

Opening Reception May 9, 7pm with Dr. Thomas Hedberg

Exhibit open daily 9am -10pm

The remarkable quilts in this exhibit are the incredible art of Betsy Caprio Hedberg, a Jungian Therapist, Spiritual Director, a prolific and published spiritual writer. The selection of hand made quilts are loaned to us by her husband Dr. Thomas Hedberg. Not your ordinary quilt show, the quilts on display are paired with Betsy's original writings on the journey of the soul as told through the language & metaphor of the art of quilt making. The exhibit will begin with an evening reception on May 9, an opportunity to gather with Dr. Thomas Hedberg & the Mary & Joseph Quilters. Light refreshments will be served. As we gather to view the quilts, Dr. Thomas Hedberg will share the insights and wisdom of this incredible woman of faith. Betsy passed away in March 2016, but her grace and her love of using art to explore the spiritual life of the soul continues to inspire and challenge us. This exhibit will be open to view for a full week.

Walk through at your own pace or call the Center to request a docent.
