The Woman at the Well

Sr. Mary Mortz,
DMJ

This quiet day of reflection sets the scene of the story of the Woman at The Well at the time of Jesus. Arrogance, hate, heat, thirst, loneliness, bravery, and fear are but a few of the themes in this powerful encounter between the Messiah and the woman in the desert. Looking at various "actors" in this story, the woman, Jesus, Jesus's disciples, the villagers. Which one calls me? Who am I? Who do I feel calls me to take a closer look? How do they feel, how do they think, and how do they change and grow?

Teacher, author and mentor, Sr. Mary has been guiding and helping people find the holy and the whole in their lives for over 30 years. Backed with sound scholarship, Sr. Mary teaches with humor & wit. Bring your Bible.
