Labyrinth: A Time to Walk

Sue Ballotti,
Labyrinth Facilitator
Paul Craig,
Labyrinth Facilitator

Whatever your season, make time to come walk with us!

There is a time and a season for all things in heaven and earth. The labyrinth in an outdoor setting is a powerful way to reconnect with nature, away from screens, noise, and busy lives. Walk amid the sights, sounds and scents of natural surroundings. Following the labyrinth path, we allow our souls to catch up as we feel earth's solid ground, hear wind in the trees and breathe in the fragrance of the plants. Labyrinth walks and prayer-in-motion can be a transforming activity, turning sorrow into joy, grief into purpose and uncertainty into calm acceptance and trust.

Join Sue Ballotti and Paul Craig, Veriditas Certified Labyrinth Facilitators, on an all-day labyrinth experience that includes historical background, group sharing, and two guided and themed labyrinth walks -- a walk in the trees and a walk to transformation.

Cost: $75 per person - lunch included.
